STRATEGIC INSIGHTS

As a firm focused exclusively in the area of Information Law, Redgrave LLP is at the forefront of understanding and addressing the ever-evolving challenges associated with the management of documents and electronically stored information. Our team brings deep experience representing Fortune 500 companies in litigation and investigations, including those involving civil claims, criminal matters and governmental investigations. We have been involved in projects ranging from the routine to complex “bet the company” litigation. We understand budgets and business organizations. Importantly, we recognize that in today’s litigation environment the single most expensive aspect of any matter is almost always discovery.

Redgrave LLP employs some of the most experienced attorneys and analysts in the field of Information Law. We have worked in small, medium and large-sized law firms, in-house corporate departments and at vendors for technology and review platforms. Notably, Jonathan Redgrave was recognized by Chambers & Partners as one of the leading lawyers in the area of litigation and discovery.

TAILORED SOLUTIONS

Whether it is through case-specific representation, or as counsel on a host of global issues, we work collaboratively with our clients’ legal, records management, compliance and technology teams to deliver practical and defensible solutions tailored to meet specific discovery needs and strategies. We are committed to providing a level of excellence expected in any AmLaw50 firm along with innovative approaches to discovery that yield measurable positive results for clients. We routinely work with other firms and vendors to provide seamless representation capacity to clients. Our National Discovery Counsel service areas include:

Litigation Representation

- Discovery and litigation strategy and planning
- Early Case Assessment
- Litigation holds and collection protocols
- Rule 26(f) conferences and the negotiation of discovery protocols
- Issuing/responding to written discovery requests
- Preparing and taking/defending depositions of corporate representatives regarding electronic discovery and records management issues
- Working with vendors to control costs and assure the highest responsiveness and benefits
- Defense of process development and support
- Motions practice and appellate briefing/argument
