FINAL RELEASE

REDGRAVE LLP EARNS MULTIPLE INDIVIDUAL TOP RANKINGS IN CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS USA 2015

CHANTILLY, VA, May 26, 2015 – Chambers and Partners has issued its 2015 edition of Chambers and Partners USA recognizing both Jonathan Redgrave and Kevin Brady as national leaders in the area of eDiscovery. Both are ranked in the category Nationwide Litigation: eDiscovery, with Jonathan Redgrave once again receiving a Band 1 ranking and Kevin Brady being ranked in Band 2.

Chambers and Partners' methodology and selection process is determined by the qualities most valued by clients, which include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial awareness, diligence and commitment. Their rankings and editorial comments about attorneys are independent, reflecting pre-eminence in key practice areas and notable achievements over the past 12 months including outstanding work, impressive strategic growth and excellence in client service.

Redgrave LLP congratulates both Jonathan Redgrave and Kevin Brady for their recognition by clients and peers. The Firm is further proud of the fact that the Firm has more lawyers ranked at the Band 1 and Band 2 levels in the Nationwide Litigation: eDiscovery rankings than any other United States law firm.

Jonathan Redgrave – Band 1 (Nationwide Litigation: eDiscovery):
Jonathan Redgrave has spent two decades working with Fortune 500 organizations and Am Law 100 law firms. He has extensive experience in all areas of complex litigation in both state and federal courts and focuses his practice in the areas of information law, which include electronic discovery, records and information management, and data protection and privacy issues. He has authored, co-authored, and edited numerous publications, including serving as Editor-in-Chief of “The Sedona Principles®,” and speaks around the world on topics including cross-border discovery, information governance, privacy, data security, and emerging technologies. Jonathan helped found, was the first Chair of, and is currently Chair Emeritus of, The Sedona Conference® Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG-1). He also serves on the Advisory Board of The Sedona Conference® and has been a member of the Georgetown University Law School Advanced eDiscovery Institute Advisory Board since its inception. Jonathan also previously served on the Advisory Committee on the Electronic Records Archives for the United States National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

Kevin Brady – Band 2 (Nationwide Litigation: eDiscovery):
Kevin Brady has extensive experience representing clients in complex corporate, commercial, and products liability litigation in both federal and state courts. Kevin also focuses his practice on providing advice and counsel on electronic discovery, electronic information management, data privacy, and data security issues. He regularly advises a wide variety of companies on records retention and information governance programs, compliance with eDiscovery demands, as well as the development and implementation of policies and procedures related to the deployment of technology solutions. Kevin serves on the Steering Committee of The Sedona Conference® Working Group on Best Practices for Electronic Document Retention and Production. In addition, he serves as Co-Chair of the Georgetown University Law Center’s Advisory Board for the Advanced E-Discovery Institute and the E-Discovery Academy.
